

Lamberti Summer Research Scholarship

Lamberti Summer Research Scholarship is an annual scholarship intended to promote student research in the area of Psychosocial Trauma Studies. The International Center for Psychosocial Trauma (ICPT) helps children worldwide who have been victimized by violence and war and who often suffer from psychological trauma. The Center's mission is to train teachers, mental health professionals and others to help children and their families overcome the effects of trauma.

D) Eligibility-

- a) Applicants must be students
- b) Both graduate and undergraduates are welcome to apply.
- c) One student will receive the scholarship each summer.

II) Benefits

- a) The recipient of the scholarship will be awarded $1500 as a stipend.
- b) The stipend will be dispersed in three monthly payments over the course of the summer.

III) Expectations

- a) The recipient will attend the ICPT weekly meetings.
- b) The recipient will conduct research over the course of the summer.
- c) General guidelines for time spent on meetings and research should be 15 hours a week for 12 weeks.
- d) At the end of the research period, the recipient will present a final project in one of the following formats;
  - 1) Submission of a training module for the ICPT Summer Institute
  - 2) Establishment of an ongoing community outreach program.
  - 3) Writing of a paper describing research and submission for publication.

II) Application process

- a) All applications are due on May 15.
- b) Applications can be found on the ICPT website @ <http://www.hsc.missouri.edu/~umicpt/>
- c) Applicants must submit a research proposal.
- d) All applications should be submitted online to the ICPT website with the research proposal as an attachment.
- e) The recipient of the scholarship will be notified by May 22, and work will begin as soon as possible.